"A ship in harbor is safe, but that is not what ships are built for."—William Shedd.

It is with pride and honor that I congratulate the Brighton High School Class of 2005. Your achievements during your time at Brighton High have been truly amazing, and I am confident that you will represent yourselves and our school with dignity and respect in college and your lives after high school.

Your time at Brighton High has been one of personal and academic growth and development, and I trust that you have felt safe and welcomed throughout your years here. Now it is time for you to move out from this safe harbor, on to the seas of life. I know that we have prepared you well for the challenges, adventures, and rewards that life will bring to you, and I look forward to hearing news of your accomplishments.

I will remember the class of 2005 fondly because you are my first class of graduating seniors, but more importantly, because you have been leaders of an unprecedented period of change and improvement in the history of Brighton High School. When you first arrived at Brighton High School, we were one of many schools in the city struggling to meet the demands of higher standards and accountability in education in Massachusetts. As you prepare to graduate you leave Brighton High School as one of the top high schools in the state in terms of achievement of our students and our overall improvement, and as a learning environment that has been recognized by educational and political leaders from across the state and the world.

I hope in the success that you have in your lives that you remember Brighton High School warmly. Please spread the wisdom and talents that you have developed here freely, and remember to support the education of other young people who are also working to grow up healthy and strong in a challenging world.

On behalf of the entire administration and faculty of Brighton High, I wish you all the best for your future.

*Toby N. Romer

"Education is the best provision for the journey of old age." - Aristotle

We hope that over your career at Brighton High School we have provided you with the tools necessary to seek out the answers along the way, as well as the confidence to continue with whatever these investigations may bring. Enjoy the journey! Be confident! Be adventuresome! Be successful!

Just don't forget us at Brighton High School!

Dear Graduate Class of 2005,

The reason that this class is so meaningful to me is that this is the first class that has been with me the full four years of high school, from 9th to 12th grade. It has been a great pleasure to have served you and to see how you have grown and matured into the adults that you are now, ready to face the world. Be good out there. Remember that you are not done. Finish college. And remember us.

Miguel Prieto

Joyce Campbell

Dear Members of the Graduating Class of 2005

As administrator of the Upper House for the past two years, it has truly been a rewarding experience to work with all of you so closely. I have seen wonderful changes as you have grown and have begun to prepare for college and careers. You began high school in Sept. 2001, a month and year that will be remembered throughout your lifetime.

Hopefully, from this tragedy you have learned that life is precious.

Take full advantage of every opportunity offered; appreciate differences, remember others, and come back to Brighton High to help us with future graduates!

Love,

Ms. Campbell

Dear Brighton High School Alumni

Congratulations on your achievements !!!

Be bold, follow your dreams, and always have fun.

Sincerely,

Xiomara Felix

Dedication

The class of 2005 would like to dedicate this yearbook to our former headmaster, Mr. Skidmore.

Mr. Skidmore words cannot describe the type of person you are. You truly exemplify the definition of a person who is one of a kind. As students entered Brighton High School four years ago, you made us feel welcome. As the years went by, the school and students grew and flourished academically under your administration.

Block scheduling started during sophomore year so that students could have sufficient time to prepare for the MCAS. In the beginning, the MCAS breakfast was held to relax our minds, for encouragement to be told, and advice to be given. We as students were perplexed because we have never met a headmaster like you. Your uniqueness and ability to listen allowed the students to be heard, which also gave us the freedom to do what we have never done before. For example, last year, with the support of our headmaster and teachers, students came together to have our first Black College Tour. We also collaborated to form the first Junior Class Committee. We would not have had these opportunities if we did not have your support.

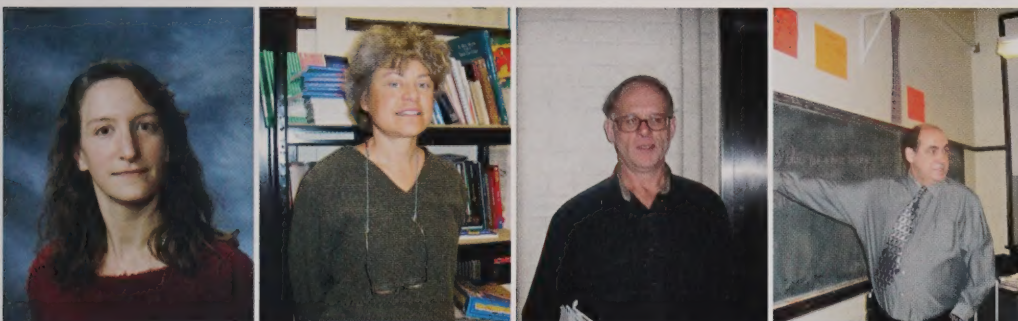

Last year we appreciated when early release days were put into effect. The reason behind this was to give teachers in school time to plan and talk about the problems in school. Teachers then also came together to find resolutions for those issues.

Your hard work will never be forgotten. The Class of 2005 wanted to take the time to thank you and let you know we appreciate what you've done. This dedication is just a small token of appreciation that we

*Your smile that lighted the sky each and every day
Your perseverance that everyone saw
You are one of those untouchable stars
In where only by wishing we come close
Never separated yourself or stood on the high stool
Without bringing someone up with you
Respected by all, loved by many and hated by the ones
That didn't care to know you, What loss they had,
Because all the moments with you have been Cherished.
Some will never get to experience your light
But those who have, were inspired by your essence and beauty.
You were truly an angel who fell from heaven to touch us all.
And now you have returned to heaven where you belong.
You are the star in the sky that twinkles bright and the one
That everyone wishes upon. Everytime a dandelion is blown
Through the gentle air we will know that it symbolizes your spirit and beauty,
And you will never be forgotten, Maddy.*

Historical Black College Tour

If we are to have peace on earth,
our loyalties must become ecumenical rather than sectional.
Our loyalties must transcend
our race, our tribe, our class, and our nation;
and this means we must develop a world perspective.
No individual can live alone.
no nation can live alone,
and as long as we try,
the more we are going to have war in this world.
Now the judgment of God is upon us,
and we must either learn to live together as brothers
or we are all going to perish together as fools.

Jessica Almeida,
Congratulations on your graduation.
Keep reaching for your dreams.
With faith in God nothing is impossible.
We Love You Always!!

Izz, Vovo, Octavio and the rest of the family.

Colleagues and Graduates of Brighton High

I just want to express my gratitude to all of the people who lent me their support throughout my years at Brighton High School. When I experienced a near death accident, most of you showed me your appreciation, your well wishes, and some of you prayed for my recuperation. God used some of you to show a human heart. You accommodated me so that I could return to work. I thank you greatly: Margaret, Cathy, Jann, Llane, Elaine, Carmen J. Awilda, Rosemary, Carol, Rowie, Maria, Walter, Sgt. Taylor, Theresa, Ketly D., Chriss, Jossie K., Radi, Iris, and many others. I just want to say that one's image is what people think we are, but integrity is what we really should be.

"Because a good heart is better than all the head in the world." As for all of you my dear graduates, never forget what good Brighton High School has done for you. You and me are leaving this educational institution with the best of memories.

Congratulations to you all, and have a successful future.

Mrs. Guity

Congratulations Tiixa,

We are proud of you, you have represented your heritage as a Nigerian, Cape Verdean & Native American. May your future be fruitful.

Much Love, your family.

Congratulations Brian

On your success now and in the future. Praying for the best to come out of you.

Love Always,
Your Grandparents

Congrats to the class of '05

We made it! We would like to thank: Ms. Madison, Ms. Cojohn, Ms. Snyder, Mr. Cohen, and Ms. Hamilton. Special thanks to Ms. Lahey and Gear up.

Congrats, to us

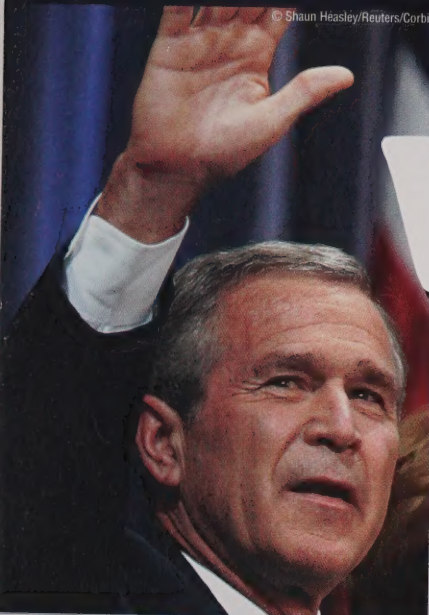

To all of our worshipers, 4 yrs are over so ya'll can finally give up. In the end we will reach prosperity while you're still breaching maturity.

For us by us
We out, True Best Friends.
